was plain enough. But there are some things that do look rather skulking and prevariouting. Some people resolve to put down the rebuilton without regard to what it may cost; but they will not volunteer and go to the front when soldiers are needed! But it aloud be remembered by parties represent ing these interests, that it is difficult to make a provision of the Constitution so important as irrequently telegraphic dispatches from Richmond in the same way. Besides these, he sends courters, with dispatches, on horseback to Culpeteer, and these to Richmond by railroad. His return depatches and the army mail are brought to Bunker Hill in the same way.

The barns are said to be full of unthreshed wheat, the pustures abounding with fat cattle, the orchards bending under their lead of truit. If Early's army was four times as large as it is, it would be at no loss times as large as all that he takes by these or subsistence. All that is taken by these raging parties is puid for.

It is said, siso, that Early's orders enjoin him to be especially vigilant in seeing that no measures are taken toward the reconstruction of that part of the Baltimore and Ohio rainoad which has been destroyed between Harper's Ferry and Martinsburg. EXPLOSION OF A DESTRUCTIVE MACRINE IN A GOVERNMENT WAREHOUSE.—The guard on duty at the Government warehouse, corner of Wishington avenue and Second street, was startled Wednesday morning at half-past 12 'clock by an explosion inside the warehouse Rushing in he found several boxes on Are, bu with the aid of several tarpaniles he succeed-ed in putting out the fire. It was soon ascer-tained that a torpedo or infernal machine had been brought lato the building in the shape of a value. In one end of the value was a clock, so arranged that at the hour of half past 12 is would explode a cap, and the spack thus created would set fire to two bottles of com-bustible material that were packed in the box. The space between the clock and bottles was illed with tow enturated with turpentine. How or when the villse was left in the ware-house is a mystery to the employes of the es-tab'ishment. This seems to prove that there is a gang of rebel emissicles in this city who seek to des'roy all the Government property th.y can get st.—[3t. Louis Damocrat, 8.h.

A very important physiolog'cal question has been set at ree'; although the circumstance has been kept unusually quiet, and those hor-rible tell-tales, the newspapers, have, through rible tell-tales, the new papers, have, through their ignorance, been as silent as the most featidious reader could desire. After this dignified and solernu proemial, which I have discretly introduced by way of breaking the news gently, I suppose I am at liberty to say two days by grasshoppers. The Union says the supply of food must be imported for the people for the ensuing year.

prominent position in the army against the advice of Grant at the outset; be has kept him in positions and on duty where he could not have placed a must from his whole army who would have been so offensive. Butler has proved himself a misetable failure in every case where he had anything to do with army movements. He has continuted as much or more to Grant's failure than any other man, except Lincoln. An effort was made to shelve him a short time ago, but he threatened Old Abe with exposure and vengence, and was reinstated at once, though such officers as Generals Smith and Brooks were put aside in cousequence. Such work of Lincoln's has disgnated efficers of worth and ability, and driven them from the service. According to the liferald, Lincoln writes to Grant: "Having related General Butler, you will oblige me is going into the seer and yellow leaf of age, into au unpleasant state of perturbation. This weather certainty affords great encouragement to unbreils-makers. I do not believe that the yield of cotton or sugar will be at all liberal. But there is another enemy to be combatted—the guerrilla. Already these maranders are desolating leased plantations, and they boidly avow their determi-nation to rain every man working one of these plantations taken by the Government. A few men who are lucky may make enarnew men who are fucky may have considered and the majority of them will not be able to pay their factor's claims, at least these are the present indications. Rising cotton is very much like "bucking the tiger," or throwing sixes—a very doubting speculation.
